Synopsis

The world at your feet: Browse. Click. Buy. All your material desires, at your fingertips, without getting off the couch. When you receive your package, do you ever wonder: how did this get here?

DELIVERY explores the journey of your order, since the moment you press click, to the instant you open your package. How much pain does your wish cost? Is human suffering worth your happiness?

Of course it is! The people at DELIVERY will literally die to make you happy! They can (and will) get hurt, maimed, humiliated and have their bodies and souls destroyed, but they will never fail to get your order scanned, packed and delivered at your door.

We truly hope you're satisfied with your purchase and thank you for using DELIVERY!
