BA WORLD PERFORMANCE PRESENTS

GRIMM TOWERS

DIRECTED BY ANDREW MCPHERSON

For some it's impossible to imagine going home to a flooded floor, faulty electrics and mould-stained walls but not for the residents of Grimm Towers. Meet hardworking mums, lost youths, and a couple overcoming their trauma from Grenfell as they navigate the social housing system and try to keep the community safe.

RUNNING TIME:

This double bill is 110 mins long including a 15 min interval.

RATING: 16+

Both plays will be staged at each performance. Please note, this production contains smoking, simulated drug use, a simulated birth, flashing lights, loud bangs and simulated sex acts.

A NOTE FROM THE DIRECTOR:

Societies are too often judged on how we treat our privileged, we should instead be judged on how we treat our most vulnerable.

Grimm Towers was born out of research, oral history interviews and love.

We've been dealt much lip-service by politicians, Prime Ministers and even Michael Gove about the need for reform in Social Housing, but we so rarely see change and even less do we actually hear from those who have lived experience of it. In this play we offer space to that voice and the inhumane ways in which people are treated. Left in neglected homes and then ripped away from their communities. Many have reached the point where enough is enough.

With this in mind, we hope our show inspires you to do your bit to help. Your signature, support and solidarity matters.
